Instructions for Displays; Vehicle, Living History, Vendors, Material / Equipment

Please enter at the Military Museum of North Florida entrance,
GPS: 1 Bunker Ave, Green Cove Springs, FL 32043
Turn right, take road along the fence, you will be directed where to go.

Vehicles for static display will be directed to the next space available.
Once parked, vehicles shall not move except to leave the event.
If leaving early, contact event staff for escort to the exit.

Vehicles supporting the battle reenactments will be escorted to the appropriate staging area shortly before the battle, and escorted back to the display after the battle.

Living History participants will be directed to their designated (Allied or Axis) camps sites.

Material / Equipment for display will be directed to a spot adjacent to the vehicle display area.

Vendors will be directed to a spot in the vendor display area.
Once in place, private vehicles must be moved to a parking area.

Non-Military / Non-Display vehicles will only be allowed to unload / load in the display / vendor areas. They must then be moved to a parking area.

Please remember there is no power available.

Primitive camping is available west of the display areas.

Again - There shall be NO Non-Military or Non-Display vehicles in the display, re-enactor camping, or vendor areas.
